Mail and Parcel Post Clauses

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Institute Cargo Clauses and Institute Strikes Clauses, this insurance attaches only as the subject-matter insured and as to any part as that part is first moved in the premises of the senders at the place named in the contract of insurance for the immediate commencement of the transit and continues, until the subject-matter insured and as to any part as that part is delivered to the address on the postal package(s) when this insurance shall terminate.
2. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, it is specially understood and agreed as follows:-
  - (1) Warranted free from claim for loss or damage proved to be due to incorrect and/or ambiguous and/or insufficient description of the address on the package and also for loss or damage resulting from any disposal by the Postal Authorities by reason of the interest having become undeliverable to, or having been unaccepted by, the addressees.
  - (2) No claim for pilferage to be admitted if package be delivered with seals intact.
  - (3) Post Office Receipt for the Mail and/or Parcel Post will be required as proof in case of claim.
  - (4) In case of loss, claim in the form of an affidavit must be immediately filed against the Government (Postal Service), and a copy thereof and of the reply thereto must accompany any claim presented under this policy.
