

December 3, 2014

Sompo Japan Nipponkoa Insurance Inc.
Sompo Japan Nipponkoa Fine Art Foundation

Sompo Japan Nipponkoa Collaborating with “Detective Conan: Sunflowers of Inferno” Movie Production

Sompo Japan Nipponkoa Insurance Inc. (President: Masaya Futamiya) and Sompo Japan Nipponkoa Fine Art Foundation (President: Masatoshi Sato) are collaborating with the movie production of “Detective Conan: Sunflowers of Inferno” scheduled to debut in the spring of 2015.

The movie is an art-related mystery centering on the seven “Sunflowers” masterpieces by Vincent van Gogh. Sompo Japan Nipponkoa and Sompo Japan Nipponkoa Fine Art Foundation are providing details about Van Gogh’s “Sunflowers” and Seiji Togo Memorial Sompo Japan Nipponkoa Museum of Art on the 42nd floor of the Sompo Japan Nipponkoa Headquarters in Tokyo will feature as a setting for the movie.

Production Data

- Title Detective Conan: Sunflowers of Inferno
- Release date Saturday, April 18, 2015
- Produced by Shogakukan, Yomiuri Telecasting Corporation, Nippon Television Network Corporation, Shogakukan-Shueisha Productions, TOHO, TMS Entertainment
- Collaboration Sompo Japan Nipponkoa, Sompo Japan Nipponkoa Fine Art Foundation
- Director Kobun Shizuno
- Screenplay Takeharu Sakurai
- Music Katsuo Ono
- Voice actors Minami Takayama, Wakana Yamazaki, Rikiya Koyama, Kappei Yamaguchi

©2015 GOSHO AOYAMA/DETECTIVE CONAN COMMITTEE
All Rights Reserved.

Official Detective Conan movie website <http://www.conan-movie.jp> (Japanese only)

“Sunflowers” by Vincent van Gogh

“Sunflowers” is one of seven oil paintings of bouquets of sunflowers in a vase painted in Arles in southern France by the Dutch artist Vincent van Gogh (1853–1890).

The only of the series that exists in Japan, Sompo Japan Nipponkoa exhibits the masterpiece at Seiji Togo Memorial Sompo Japan Nipponkoa Museum of Art.

“Sunflowers” by Vincent van Gogh, 1888

Collection of Seiji Togo Memorial Sompo Japan Nipponkoa Museum of Art

Seiji Togo Memorial Sompo Japan Nipponkoa Museum of Art website <http://www.sjnk-museum.org/en>