Donations to Humanitarian Aid Activities in Ukraine and Neighboring Countries through
"Sunflowers" of Van Gogh etc. by Sompo Group

Sompo Holdings, Inc. (Chairman & Group CEO: Kengo Sakurada, hereinafter "Sompo Holdings") donated to humanitarian aid activities in Ukraine and neighboring countries through Vincent van Gogh's "Sunflowers", which is currently on permanent exhibition at the Sompo Museum of Art (operated by the Sompo Fine Art Foundation) and owned by Sompo Japan Insurance Inc., in connection with Sunflowers, which have become a symbol of peace.

1. Donations of the Sompo Group

- In accordance with the number of visitors during an exhibition "Henri Le Sidaner – Henri Martin" held at the Sompo Museum of Art as well as the number of views of the exhibition's promotion movie during the period from March 26 to June 26 in 2022, the Sompo Group donated 84,532,205 yen to the following support groups who carry out humanitarian aid activities in Ukraine and neighboring countries. We would like to express our sincere gratitude for the warm support of many stakeholders who wish for peace.

■ Total donation : 84,532,205 yen

- Number of visitors: 41,708
- Number of views of the exhibition's promotion movie: 1,186,627
- The total amount of donations was divided into the following 5 groups, and 16,906,441 yen was donated to each group.
- The donation amount is calculated based on the general admission fee of 1,600 yen per visitor and 15 yen per video viewing, in connection with the 15 sunflowers drawn by Van Gogh.

3. Going Forward

The Sampo Group pray for peace as soon as possible in the international community including Ukraine, with the aim of realizing the SOMPO's Purpose which is expressed as "With 'A Theme Park for Security, Health and Wellbeing', create a society in which every person can live a healthy, prosperous and happy life in one's own way".

We hope that "Sunflowers" which is regarded as a symbol of peace worldwide, will give many stakeholders a chance to think about peace again and expand the circle of support.
